

Cookie Policy

Paramount Security Solutions Ltd ("we" or "us") is committed to protecting your privacy and providing a safe online experience. This Cookie Policy describes how we use cookies, as well as your rights to control our use of them.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They are used to improve your user experience by remembering your preferences and activity on the website. Cookies can also be used to gather information about your device, such as its operating system, browser type, and IP address.

Types of cookies we use:

We use the following types of cookies on our website:

Essential cookies: These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They enable you to navigate the website and use its features, such as accessing secure areas and making payments.

Performance cookies: These cookies collect information about how you use our website, such as which pages you visit and any errors you encounter. This information helps us improve the website's performance and user experience.

Functionality cookies: These cookies allow us to remember your preferences and settings, such as language and font size, so that we can provide you with a personalized experience.

Marketing cookies: These cookies are used to deliver personalised advertisements and promotions to you based on your browsing activity and interests.

Third-party cookies

We may use third-party cookies on our website for analytics and advertising purposes. These cookies are placed by third-party service providers, such as Google Analytics and Facebook, and allow us to gather information about your website usage and deliver personalised advertising to you.

Managing Cookies

You have the right to control our use of cookies on our website. You can block or delete cookies at any time by changing your browser settings. However, please note that blocking or deleting cookies may affect your ability to use certain features on our website.

Updates to this cookie policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. The most recent version will always be available on our website.
